Hermosa Inn

LUXURY BOUTIQUE HIDEAWAY

Paradise Valley, Arizona

Famed artist Lon Megargee created The Hermosa Inn in the 1930s as his private escape before opening it up to guests. While the ownership has changed, this luxury boutique inn retains that original intimate feel, complete with homey touches: Lon's original artwork hanging on the walls, a flourishing garden, and upscale furnishings throughout.

Today, this historic and secluded boutique hotel nestled in the foothills of Camelback Mountain, casts its spell on art lovers and adventurers who appreciate flawless service and the finest amenities. This desert hideaway welcomes you into a lushly landscaped retreat featuring 43 hacienda-style guestrooms and casitas individually decorated in warm, Southwestern style. Fireplaces, secluded patios, and vaulted ceilings add to the relaxed appeal.

The AAA four diamond restaurant, LON's at the Hermosa, showcases globally inspired Arizona fare where guests can enjoy their meal on an award-winning patio near a glowing fireplace overlooking the mountains.

The allure of the Valley of the Sun—comprised of Scottsdale, Phoenix, and Tempe—is that the sun shines more than 325 days a year. Visitors flock to the desert to experience the abundance of world-championship golf courses, upscale shopping, outdoor activities, and nightlife. And...The Hermosa Inn is perfectly located to enjoy it all.
