PEER™ Open Forum: What to Expect & Why It Matters

Curious—or a bit unsure—about the PEER™ \(Performance Enhancement and Effectiveness Review™\) process? Join us for the PEER™ Open Forum, an informal discussion with programs that have completed PEER™ and the subject matter experts who guide reviews.

You'll hear firsthand what the process feels like, what programs gained, how SMEs approach reviews, and what surprised participants—plus get your questions answered live. Designed to support program growth and connect you with best practices across the Physician and Health Professional community, PEER™ is often described as challenging (in a good way), inspiring, and highly impactful. Come discover why.

Facilitators:

Scott Humphreys, MD (Committee Chair)
Emily King, PA-C (Vice Chair)

Subject Matter Experts:

Candace Backer, LCSW, LCAC
Leah M. Briick, PhD

PHP PEER™ Program Speakers:

Colorado Physician Health Program - Sarah Early, PhD
Additional speakers to be announced soon.

New Research Spotlight: The Societal Cost of Nurse Loss

A newly published Nursing Outlook article, “From Turnover to Societal Impact: Expanding the RETAIN Nurse Loss Cost Estimation to Include Losing a Nurse to the Profession,” co-authored by Dr. Lorna Breen Heroes’ Foundation Ambassador Dr. Judy Davidson and Robert Longyear, expands how we think about workforce loss—moving beyond traditional turnover costs to examine the broader societal impact when a nurse leaves the profession.
